NOTES:

- This is a "bare bones" version of "Soldier's Joy" but you can play it right along with folks who put a bunch of fancy stuff in it.
- You'll be able to add the shuffle bowing and a few more notes as you go along.
- This is a great tune to memorize... AND to practice playing while you look around the room. In all of your playing you'll want to try to keep from looking at your fingering while you play. If you watch people... you'll be able to learn from what they do. And... you'll be much more able to notice the speed and stay with everyone while you play. That's very important in a jam!
- Have fun with it!
